Women in Secure Services

A one day conference discussing the placement of women with learning disability or mental health issues in secure services

The Elvetham, Hartley Wintney, Hants, RG27 8AR

Thursday, March 4, 2010

Vista Healthcare is hosting a one day conference on Women In Secure Services.

The conference is well timed with the publication of the Lord Bradley Report entitled 'The review of people with mental health problems or learning disability in the criminal justice system'.

The object of the conference is to provoke debate on the subject of women in secure services and inject fresh stimulus into their treatment and care.

Places at the conference are strictly limited and the cost will be: £40 per person by February 12 with 10% discount for groups of four or more. £50 per person from February 13 with 10% discount for groups of four or more

There will be no charge for students and charitable organisations, subject to availability.

(Any proceeds to the Vista Healthcare Charitable Foundation Trust)
